

Alopoudi Aristi

Speech Language Therapist (Queen Margaret University), MA Special Educational Needs (University of East London), MSc Neuroscience and Neurodegenerative Diseases (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki). Specialization in Therapeutic Horseback Riding (2017, Equestrian Club of Northern Greece). Participation in global and pan-Hellenic conferences as a speaker since 2017. Voluntary work and training at the Greek Association of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders (2019-2022). Four years of practical work in rehabilitation centers and therapeutic centers for children and adults. Eight years of experience as a private individual in speech therapy and special education sessions, working with adults with neurological and neurodegenerative diseases and with pediatric population with typical and non-typical development. Collaboration with Alzheimer Hellas in the Erasmus+ program "Mobilegame4COSkills". Training in therapeutic approaches to Pervasive Developmental Disorders, Dysphagia, Stuttering and Dysarthria. Specializations in: School Psychology and the Management of Parental Separation-Divorce, Special Education, Specialized Cases of Intervention and Practical Applications in Speech Therapy (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens). Knowledge of foreign languages: English, German, Spanish, Russian.

