

Aygun Badalova

Aygun Badalova, Master's degree in Neuroscience and Neuropsychology, PhD student on Alzheimer's disease. Work Experience: National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, Honorary assistant neuropsychologist 2021-present Birkbeck University, Research assistant 2020-2021. Health Vision UK Healthcare assistant (Dementia) 2019-2020. Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences, Research assistant 2014-2019 Autism Center, Assistant Psychologist 2019-2020, Modern Hospital General neurology department, assistant Neurologist 2017-2019, Biological Medicine Clinics, Therapy department. HCA 2013-2017 Glaxo-SmithKline, Medical representative 2009-2013

Education: UCL PhD 2021-2025 Alzheimer's disease and Dementia, Stonebridge College London (with distinction), Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, 2022, UCL and Birkbeck University of London (with distinction), MSc. Cognitive Neuroscience and Neuropsychology, 2019-2020 Azerbaijan Technical University (with distinction), BSc in IT, Biotechnology and Management 2010-2015 Azerbaijan Medical College, BSc. General Medicine. 2007-2010, Additional Information, CBT therapy course with distinction –Stonebridge College London Dementia care course –Queen Square London, Covid vaccinator -NHS

Training and Qualifications: Certificate of Completion on: Module1. Managing manual handling Module2. Hoisting, Module4. CBT level 3, Module5. Pool training on disabled children Module6.Dementia care, Module7.CBT for Dementia patients Neuroanatomy for Imagers Basic Life Support & Manual Handling ☑ Equality and Diversity in the Workplace ☑ Child Protection Level Two ☑ Safeguarding Adults Level Two ☑ National Early Warning Score Two (NEWS2)