

Batsila Georgia

Batsila Georgia is an Aristotle University Psychology Graduate. She completed her master's degree with distinction in Advanced Information and Communication Systems on the application area of Intelligent Systems of Dept. of Electrical & Computer Engineering of Aristotle University. She has been working as a psychologist for the last 15 years in Greek Association of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders "Alzheimer Hellas" in Thessaloniki. She has specialized in the design and implementation of cognitive rehabilitation programs in elderly and dementia patients as well as in neuropsychological assessment. She also participates in educational and informative seminars on education programs for patients with dementia and in workshops for the general public. She has participated as a trainer in educational seminars dedicated to health professionals in dementia, as well as a speaker at Panhellenic and World Conferences. She has participated in publications of research papers in scientific journals, as well as in books related to third age and dementia. Moreover, she has been trained in Cognitive-Behavioral Psychotherapy and in her private office she provides individual, couple and group psychotherapy and counseling.

