

Chatziroumpi Rania

Rania Chatziroumpi graduated from the Department of Psychology at the Philosophical Section of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She has been involved in the field of education for a number of years. She has attended a number of seminars and conferences in the field of mental health, in the context of her continuing education. She has been working from 2019 until today as a psychologist in Alzheimer-Hellas. She has specialized in the design and implementation of cognitive rehabilitation programs in elderly and dementia patients as well as in neuropsychological assessment. She also participates in educational and informative seminars on education programs for patients with dementia. She has participated as a trainer in educational seminars dedicated to health professionals in dementia, as well as a speaker at Panhellenic Conference. She has participated in publications of research papers in scientific journals. She deals with writing texts and articles and participates in research projects aimed at evaluating the effectiveness of cognitive enhancement programs

