

Soledad Corachán

Soledad Corachán is a cellist, music therapist, choir conductor and music teacher. She is a music therapist and conductor of the choir the Voices of Memory of the Alzheimer Association of Valencia, Spain. She won the 1st prize for Best practice in the care of the elderly in 2018. She has carried out interventions addressed to different target groups and since 2016 especially with People with Alzheimer and other Dementias at the Alzheimer Association of Valencia, Spain. She has also carried out short interventions in Alzheimer Association of UK. Soledad has participated in several national and international conferences and in presentations about the benefits of Music Therapy at the University of Valencia. She also coordinates European Erasmus + projects such as AD Gaming: Development of a Training Program for the Improvement of Quality of Life of Persons with Alzheimer through “Serious Games”, AD-Arts: A training program for improving quality of life of persons with Alzheimer’s and others dementias through innovative creative arts therapies supported by digital tools and Songs for care: English Lessons with the use of songs.

