

Erkotidou Sofia

MSc MEd Speech Therapist Sofia Erkotidou has 13 years of clinical experience. Since 2009, she has been working in the field of speech therapy, as a scientific associate at the Papanikolaou Hospital and the Alzheimer Society, and works privately as a speech therapist. He graduated with honors from the speech therapy department (8.68) and in 2014 he received the title with honors from the University of Neapolis, Paphos, specializing in Educational Psychology. the University of Nicosia. In 2011-2012 she volunteered her services as a speech therapist in the Municipality of Pavlos Melas, and was awarded for her contribution and work. During her studies she prepared papers and translated - edited 3 foreign language books. Since 2008 she has been participating in conferences, has taken courses in sign language and deals with music and music therapy. She is fluent in English and very good in German. Her research was published in both Greek and English in 2015 (Hellenic Journal of Nuclear Medicine, ISSN 1790-5427,2015), while in 2019 and 2021 her comparative study was published (Aristotle Biomedical Journal, vol1, No 1 e - ISSN 2653-9748,2019) and the article on "Feeding and Swallowing Disorders in Patients with Alzheimer's and Other Neurodegenerative Diseases".

