

Rafailia Georgiadou

Rafailia Georgiadou is a senior student at the Department of Occupational Therapy, School of Health Sciences in University of Western Macedonia. During her studies, she has attended educational programs related to autism spectrum disorder and has participated in social actions, of Occupational Therapy Department of the UoWM

(Deafblind Awareness Action, Deafblind International (DBI)). She has also participated as a co-presenter in the Conference, "Psychopedagogical animal assisted intervention forms in the context of Special Education", of ENEEGYL in collaboration with the UoWM, at the University Campus, in Kastoria, Greece. The subject of presentation was "The Engagement of animals in Occupational Therapy Practice in the Autism spectrum". In addition, she has participated in Erasmus+ training courses, in relation to youth policy, the employment of disabled people and the inclusion of marginalized groups and has volunteered in local clubs' actions.