

Giannopoulou Maria-Angeliki

My name is Giannopoulou Maria-Angeliki and I am a graduate of the Department of Psychology of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. My thesis during my studies was entitled: " Leisure time of the Caregivers of Alzheimer's disease patients: Literature Review.". I carried out my internship at the Association of Women with Breast Cancer "Alma Zois" in Thessaloniki the months of September and October of 2022. Also, I volunteered at the Smile of the Child from April 2021 until today, while, since October 2021, I have been a volunteer at the Hellenic Society for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Day Center "Agia Eleni" , where I participated in the information program "No Portion of Food Lost" of "Boroume" until June 2022. I also volunteered in the organization and assistance in the "Connected we stand" festival and in the information campaign of the 10th "Sail for pink" organized by 'Alma Zois' of Thessaloniki. I have attended several training seminars from October 2020 until today and lastly, I speak Greek (as a native speaker) and English (C2/proficiency level).
