

Dr Yiannis Koutedakis Professor Emeritus

A former Dean at the School of Exercise Sciences, Thessaly University (Greece), a visiting Prof at Wolverhampton University (UK), chairman of the National Centre “Exercise is Medicine-Greece” and director of two MSc programmes in exercise and health. He also has been a national rowing coach for Greece and UK and a founding member of the British Olympic Medical Centre. He has published more than 300 scientific articles, while parts of this work has been adopted by reputable agencies, such as the European Commission, Health and Consumer Protection Directorate-General (2009), the Scottish NHS (2011), the European League Against Rheumatism (2016), and the European Respiratory Society (2018). His name appeared at the top 2% of all scientists worldwide for the years 2020, 2021 και 2022, as well as among the 42 top Greek Medical Scientists (2022).

