

Kučuk Osman

Expert for dementia on the field of psychology. Author of a many brochures and the two books: book for nurses and care givers and guide for GP's. Author of guidelines „Dementia in the time of Covid-19 pandemic“. He is coauthor of transnational guidelines to dementia „Interprofessional Management of Dementia“ used for INDEED Online Learning Platform funded by EU INTERREG and translated into 5 languages (english, slovakian, slovenian, bulgarian, romanian). Lecturer in Dementia Master Classes, coach for medical experts, nurses, formal and unformal care givers, psychologists, social workers, dementia care therapists. He is president of Working Group for Development of National Dementia Strategy in FBiH. He is a participant and initiator of many research projects and single out is scientific research in BiH „Dementia as epidemic of BH society“. Currently, he is director of Centre for dementia in Sarajevo that is unique institution in Western Balkan.

