Papadimitriou Panagiotis

Teacher of Science of Physical Education & Sports. He holds a master's degree from the Interdepartmental master's degree program "Neurosciences and Neurodegenerative Diseases" of the Medical School in Aristotle University of Thessaloniki with the subject "Multiple Sclerosis". He is also a graduate of two foreign languages, English and Spanish. He holds the certificate of attending the annual seminar from the University of the Aegean with the subject of School Psychology as well as the training degree from the University of Patras in the subject of informatics and specifically the Python programming language. He worked for 12 consecutive years, from 2000-2012, in the position of therapist-companion for the disabled, while at the same time he has also worked in a public school as a Physical Education & Sports Teacher and as a coach in an amateur Classic Sports team. His voluntary action took place in the cultural program of the MEGISTIS school and entitled: "Kastellorizo through QR codes" as well as volunteering in the program entitled: "Sports paths" under the auspices of the cultural center of the Stavros Niarchos Foundation.