

Souliou Fotini

Fotini was born on 02/01/2000 and hails from Drama. In July 2022 she graduated from the Psychology Department of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki with a grade of 8.30/10. During the academic year 2021-2022 she conducted research entitled "Pride Experience Trends and Personal Myth in Adolescence and Emerging Adulthood". In the year 2022, she carried out her internship at the Hellenic Society for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders at the "Agios Ioannis" Day Centre, where she then carried out her volunteer work. In the same year, she participated voluntarily in the information and action program "Mporoume - Kamia Merida

Fagitou Xameni" for the Hellenic Society for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders, and from October 2022 she volunteered her services at the Hellenic Society for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders of Drama, of which she is a founding member since 2021. From 2019 to 2022 he has attended a total of 35 training seminars, 12 conferences and 1 summer school in psychology in general and Alzheimer's disease in particular. Finally, she holds certified degrees in English, German and Spanish.