

Tsatali Marianna

She received her bachelor from the Psychology department of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and the MSc in the Management of Chronic Pain from the Medical School of the University of Ioannina. She holds a professional diploma from the Brain Tree Rehabilitation Center Surrey in UK, whereas she is also certified as Neurofeedback Trainer by the BCIA institute and was a scientific collaborator of the Northern Greece Neurofeedback Centre (NGNC). Additionally, she received the Ph.D. degree from the Psychology department of the University of Sheffield, UK. She works in the Greek Alzheimer Association, and she is also a research associate at the Medical Physics Laboratory of AUTH. Additionally, she is also Lecturer at the International Faculty of the Europe campus, City College, Department of Psychology. Additionally, she represents Greek Alzheimer's Disease Federation in Alzheimer Europe Organization, and has also participated in various Erasmus research projects. Finally, she has contributions in interdisciplinary conferences either as presenter or having poster presentations, as well as she is author of 31 published papers.

