

Bilanakis Nikos

Graduate of the Medical School of the University of Ioannina, specialized in Psychiatry, Doctor of the Medical School of the University of Ioannina, holder of a Master's Degree in Health Services Management from the School of Social Sciences of the EAP, Group Analyst trained by the Society for Group Analysis and Family Therapy (President: M. Yosafat. Founding member and President of the NGO Center for Research and Support of Victims of Abuse and Social Exclusion, Visiting Professor of the Department of Psychology of the University of Ioannina, Professor-Advisor of the Hellenic Open University, further training at the Maudsley Hospital of the Institute of Psychiatry in London, ex Coordinator Director of Psychiatric Clinic G,N, Artas, , Member of the Legislation Committee for the Update of Involuntary Hospitalization, Scientifically Responsible for the Day Care Center for Demented People in Arta. Author of many scientific articles and books, chapters of which or in their entirety form part of the Curriculum of many University Schools. He was particularly concerned with human rights and ethics while he is. member of the Department of Psychiatric Ethics and Ethics of the Hellenic Psychiatric Society. He distinguished himself as a representative of EKYTHKA with awards in relevant competitions.

