

Daskalou Simeon Dimitrios

Mr. Symeon Dimitrios Daskalou is a PhD Candidate at the Department of Occupational Therapy at the University of West Attica. His dissertation focuses on the "Comparative study of cognitive ability, adaptive functioning, and behavior of preterm and full-term school-age children," supervised by Dr. Ioanna Giannoula Katsouri, Assistant Professor at the Department of Occupational Therapy, University of West Attica. He has been working for 10 consecutive years in the field of Pediatric Occupational Therapy and has specialized in early intervention for infants with neurodevelopmental disorders. Since 2022, he has been serving as an Academic Scholar at the Department of Occupational Therapy, University of West Attica, responsible for the courses of Clinical Practice. Additionally, he works as Special Educational Staff - Occupational Therapist at the Interdisciplinary Assessment, Counseling, and Support Center of West Attica. He is also a graduate with honors from the Department of Occupational Therapy of the Faculty of Health and Welfare Professions at the Technological Educational Institute of Athens, having received his degree in June 2015 with the distinction of "Excellent." Furthermore, he holds a Master's Degree from the Postgraduate Program "Child and Adolescent Mental Health and Psychiatry" of the Medical School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens.

