

Erkotidou Sofia

MSc Med Speech Therapist Sofia Erkotidou has 15 years of clinical and practical experience. From 2009, she serves the field of speech therapy. She graduated with honors from the speech therapy department, while in 2014 she received her master with honors from the Neapolis University, specializing in "Educational Psychology". In 2024, she received her 2nd master specializing in "Special Education" from the University of Nicosia. In 2011-2012 she volunteered her services as a speech therapist in the Municipality of Pavlos Melas and was awarded for her contribution and work. In 2022 - 2023 she studied "Sex Education in Education" and "School Psychology". She is also certified in "Child Footprint Analysis" and in 2024 she participated in a seminar on the new data on autism. During her studies she prepared various papers and translated - edited 3 books. Since 2008 she has been participating in conferences either as a speaker or as audience. She also deals with music and music therapy. She is fluent in English and very good in German. Her research has been publishing in both Greek and English since 2015. She remains a scientific associate of the Alzheimer Society. She owns a speech and language center in Thessaloniki.

