

Garopoulou Vasiliki

Dr. Vasiliki S. Garopoulou is a Special-Adapted Physical Exercise & Sport Science Educator, a Scientific Counselor of Neurorehabilitation, Therapeutic Medical Exercise Specialist. She holds 2 Postgraduate Diplomas on "Multiple Sclerosis" from AUTH with scholarships and 2 postgraduate – vocational training certificates abroad. She has also been awarded a PhD with full scholarship in the Laboratory of Developmental Medicine and Special Needs Education in collaboration with the 2nd Neurology Dept. of AHEPA of the AUTH Medical School. She completed her first Post- Doctoral degree at the AUTH Medical School in the field of Neurosciences and her second Post- Doctoral research as a full scholarship researcher with the State Scholarships Foundation (IKY) with P.D. thesis: Neurorehabilitation & Therapeutic Exercise in MS. She just finished her 3rd Post-Doc research at the AUTH Medical School with research subject about neurodegenerative diseases. She has participated as a scientific associate in research programs, implemented by the AUTH Medical School, Scientific collaborator at 1st Neurology Dept. of AHEPA and Scientific Collaborator at the Greek Association of Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders. She has presented her research work at numerous scientific conferences, training seminars and academic and clinical events, and has publications in Greek and international peer-reviewed journals.

